8. BOARD COMMENTS –

Shari Ouellette wished to extend condolences to the family of Jay Police Chief Larry White. Amy McDaniel discussed stipend calculations in Lewiston school system. Tim Madden inquired about the school districts policy concerning communicable diseases.

9. SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT -

Ken Healey said that on Thursday morning he witnessed the collectiveness of this community by parents, teachers, students and community members at the Spirit Challenge Tailgate Breakfast. This gathering was the most impressive school event Ken Healey has seen in his 17 years working in education. It was heartwarming and motivating and it was great to see teachers making breakfast for the students. Kudos to everyone involved.

10. BOARD CHAIR'S REPORT –

Negotiations this coming Tuesday with the Teamsters will have to be rescheduled. Chair Rodzen will announce new date when it has been set.

11. COMMITTEE REPORTS - None

12. ADMINISTRATOR'S REPORTS

12.1 Spruce Mountain High School – Thomas Plourde

The school spirit challenge was an awesome event. Outstanding to see everyone working together. Michelle Brann did all the work in the beginning. Nearly $5,900 had been collected so far. There will be many more events over the next couple of weeks. The challenge will continue until October 31.

12.2 Spruce Mountain Middle School – Scott Albert

Congratulations to our new student council members. Progress reports went home today, parent teacher conferences are next Tuesday and Wednesday, picture day is October 21.

12.3 Jay Elementary School – Chris Hollingsworth

Elementary schools are involved in helping the high school Spirit Challenge.....LES has challenged JES, currently LES has 2,200 lbs. of food and JES has 2400 lbs. of food.

Grandparents Day was very successful, we had over 800 people inside JES. We have great support.

12.4 Livermore Elementary School – Kevin Harrington

We have a Grandparents Day coming. We have 4 committees that are all up and running and very vocal with great ideas. We have a visiting author coming up on the 16th.. There is a 1st grade costume social coming up.
