JURISDICTION: RSU 73 SchoolsPOLICY: BULLYING

The Board believes that bullying, including cyberbullying, is detrimental to student wellbeing and to student learning and achievement. It interferes with the mission of the schools to educate their students and disrupts the operations of the schools. Bullying affects not only students who are targets but also those who participate in and witness such behavior.

Bullying Prohibited

Bullying, including “cyberbullying,” harassment, and sexual harassment, is not acceptable conduct in RSU 73 and is prohibited.

Retaliation for the reporting of incidents of such behavior is also prohibited.

In adopting this policy, it is not the Board’s intent to prohibit students from expressing their ideas, including religious, political, and philosophical views that may offend the sensibilities of others, or from engaging in civil debate. However, the Board does not condone and will take action in response to conduct that directly interferes with students’ rights at school under applicable laws or with the educational mission, operations, discipline, or general welfare of the schools.

Definitions

“Bullying” and “cyberbullying” have the same meaning in this policy as in Maine law:

Bullying - “Bullying” includes, but is not limited to, a written, oral, or electronic expression; or a physical act or gesture; or any combination thereof directed at a student or a student that:

A. Has, or a reasonable person who would expect to have, the effect of:

1. physically harming a student or damaging a student’s property; or
2. placing a student in reasonable fear of physical harm or damage to his / her property;

B. Interferes with the rights of a student by:

1. creating an intimidating or hostile educational environment for the student; or
2. interfering with the student’s academic performance or ability to participate in or benefit from the services, activities, or privileges provided by the school; or

C. Is based on:

1. a student's actual or perceived characteristics identified in 5 MRSA § 4602 or 4684-A (including race; color; ancestry; national origin; sex; sexual orientation; gender identity or expression; religion; physical or mental disability) or other distinguishing personal characteristics (such as socioeconomic status; age; physical appearance; weight; or family status); or
2. a student's association with a person with one or more of these actual or perceived characteristics or any other distinguishing characteristics; and that has the effect described in paragraph A or B above.

Under Maine law:

"Sexual Orientation" means a person's actual or perceived heterosexuality, bisexuality, homosexuality, or gender identity or expression.

"Gender Identity" means gender-related identity, appearance, mannerisms, or other gender-related characteristics of an individual, regardless of the individual's assigned sex at birth.

Cyberbullying - "Cyberbullying" means bullying through the use of technology or any electronic communication, including but not limited to, a transfer of signs, signals, writing, images, sounds, data, or intelligence of any nature transmitted by the use of any electronic device including, but not limited to, a computer, telephone, cellular telephone, text messaging device, or personal digital assistant.

Retaliation - Retaliation means an act or gesture against a student for asserting or alleging an act of bullying. Retaliation also includes reporting that is not made in good faith on an act of bullying.

Application of Policy

This policy applies to bullying that:

- A. takes place at school or on school grounds, at any school-sponsored or school related activity or event, or while students are being transported to or from school or school-sponsored activities or events; or
- B. takes place elsewhere or through the use of technology, but only if the bullying also infringes on the rights of the student at school as set forth in the definition of "bullying."

JURISDICTION: RSU 73 SchoolsConsequences for Policy Violations*Students

Students who violate this policy may be subject to disciplinary action which may include suspension, expulsion, or a series of graduated consequences including alternative discipline or other behavior interventions.

The Board retains the right to impose disciplinary consequences for bullying and other conduct that occurs at any time or place that substantially disrupts the instructional program, operations of the schools, or welfare of students.

Any student violating this policy may also be subject to civil or criminal penalties.

School Employees and Others

Administrators, professional staff and all other employees who violate this policy may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal, and in accordance with any applicable collective bargaining agreements.

Volunteers, contractors, and visitors who violate this policy will be excluded from school property until the Superintendent is satisfied that the person will comply with Maine's bullying law and this policy.

Any person violating this policy may also be subject to civil or criminal penalties.

Any school-affiliated organization that authorizes or engages in bullying or retaliation is subject to forfeiture of Board approval / sanctioning and/or suspension or revocation of its permission to operate on school grounds.

Staff Training

RSU 73 will provide professional development and staff training annually in bullying prevention and response.

Delegation of Responsibility

The Superintendent / designee will be responsible for developing and implementing procedures in accordance with applicable law to implement this policy.

The Superintendent will designate the school's principal and/or other school personnel to be responsible for implementation / enforcement of this policy and associated procedures on the school level.
